

9/11 Ten Years After: A Time of Remembrance, Healing and Hope

A large coalition of metropolitan Denver faith organizations, including the Colorado Council of Churches, Colorado Muslim Society, the Rocky Mountain Rabbinical Council, the Religious Advisory Council of the University of Denver, and Abrahamic Initiative is hosting a series of events around the tenth anniversary of 9/11.

"For nearly a decade now, since the attacks of September 11, 2001, we Americans have known without a doubt that any hope for a peaceful world will require profound engagement among the world's religions." Dean of the National Cathedral, Samuel T Lloyd III

OPEN HOUSE AND EID-AL-FITR FESTIVAL

The Colorado Muslim Society/ Masjid Abu Bakr

2071 S. Parker Road, Denver, CO 80231

Saturday, September 3, 5:00-8:00 pm

An evening of community and sharing as part of the closing festival of Ramadan.
(Light vegetarian food will be served.)

"CONVERSATIONS THAT MATTER"

With local leaders and teachers

St. John's Cathedral

1350 Washington Street, Denver, CO 80203

Sunday, September 11 - 1:30 to 3:00pm

Conversation opportunities include:

People of Faith Speak Out: What do I love and what troubles me of my own tradition?

Creating a Safe Space for Public Discourse: How do we know what is fair to discuss with 'the other'?

What Are the Sources of Our Greatest Fears of Each Other?

What Do Various Sacred Texts Teach About Other Faith Traditions.

Seeking Common Ground: Connecting and inspiring young leaders as agent for social change and transformation, building peaceful communities worldwide.

Special Event!!

3:30- 4:30 pm Joint Session of "Conversations that Matter"
in the Sanctuary of St. John's Cathedral

A Force More Powerful:

An interactive interfaith performance/workshop with Jonny 5 of the Flobots

"A Multifaith Service of Remembrance, Healing and Hope."

St. John's Cathedral (main sanctuary)

1350 Washington Street, Denver, CO 80203

Sunday, September 11 - 6:00-7:15pm

A service of music, word and symbolism lead by leaders of the three Abrahamic faiths.

For more information and additional events go to www.multifaithdenver.org